Foreword

Communication is that thread which runs through all our lives tying us to the world around us, to each other, and even to our own dreams and ambitions. We express ourselves in our activities and interests. Every action, every word is a communication of a thought or feeling—an image from our minds or our hearts.

The following record attempts to translate this year—your year into pictures and print. This is RHS, this is your generation, this is you . . . communicating

RHS Speaks

RHS is alive with the sounds of communication. Our voices are the means of learning, leading, informing, and of school spirit, too. The excerning the importance of class elections.

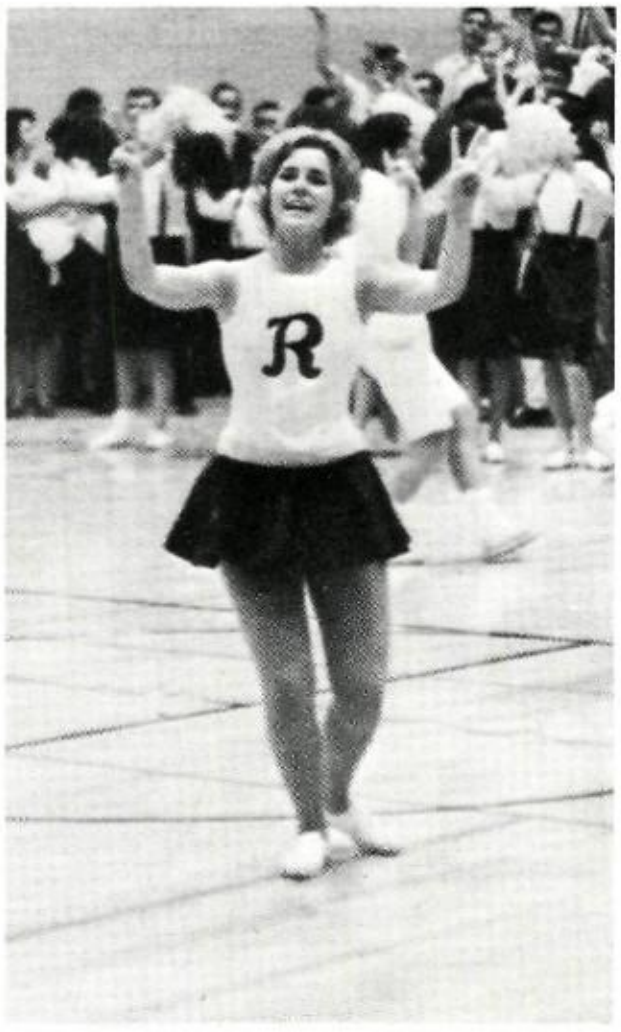
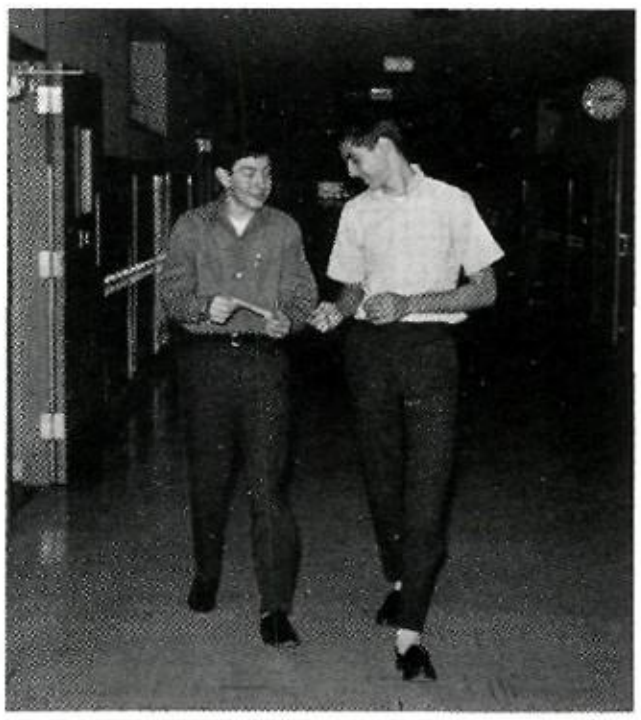
As Head cheerleader Patsy Foster holds up the "V" for victory, the student body yells "GO, GO."



Friendship is emphasized at RHS.



Communication cultivates good student-teacher relationships.

Eaglettes Welcome New Sponsor

During practice sessions, the empty stadium echoes the drum cadence.

Richardson Eagle football fans enjoy the sparkle that the Eaglettes add to each half time. Each Eaglette devotes much of her time and concentration to striving for perfection in each routine which is performed.

Newly named sponsor Mrs. Patsy Owens has also given her time and able leadership to making the Eaglettes truly the pride of RHS.

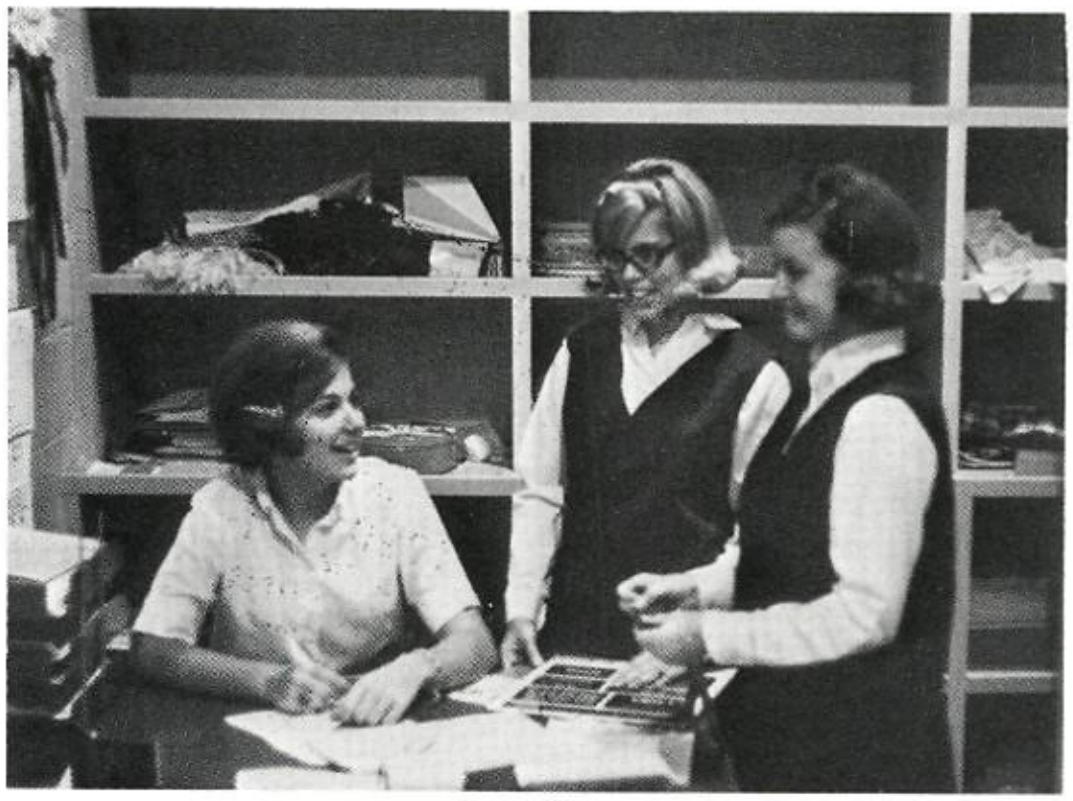
Marilyn

Mrs. Patsy Owens in her first year as sponsor of the Eaglettes, has done a truly outstanding job.

Phyllis Greene, Nancy Boren, and Denise Moyer have proved to be very valuable to the Eaglette organization. They are always there to do all of the necessary transactions in aiding the Eaglettes and Mrs. Owens.



Lt. Donna Lawrence, Capt. Carolyn Hight, Lt. Pricilla Ducote, Lt. Karen Price, Lt. Kaye Mackay, and Lt. Kay Stringer have led the Eaglette line well this football season. They received their training last summer at SMU's drillteam school where they placed second in the competition.

No matter how cold, every Friday morning the Eaglettes turn out to put the polishing touches on their routine.

Linda Mumaw and Cheryl Miller take their turn at selling programs, here, to two Quarterback Club members. The Eaglettes are completely responsible for the football programs—compiling, printing, and selling.

Priscilla Ducote, Linda Mumaw, Peggy Hager, Janey Billings, Carla Ford, and Mary Kay Bock relax before they begin decorating the goalposts.

Left to right, Priscilla Ducote, Linda Mumaw, and Peggy Hager devote an early Saturday morning to painting a lot of Eagle spirit on Simpson-Barnett's window.

Behind each glamorous routine is much not-so-glamorous preparation.

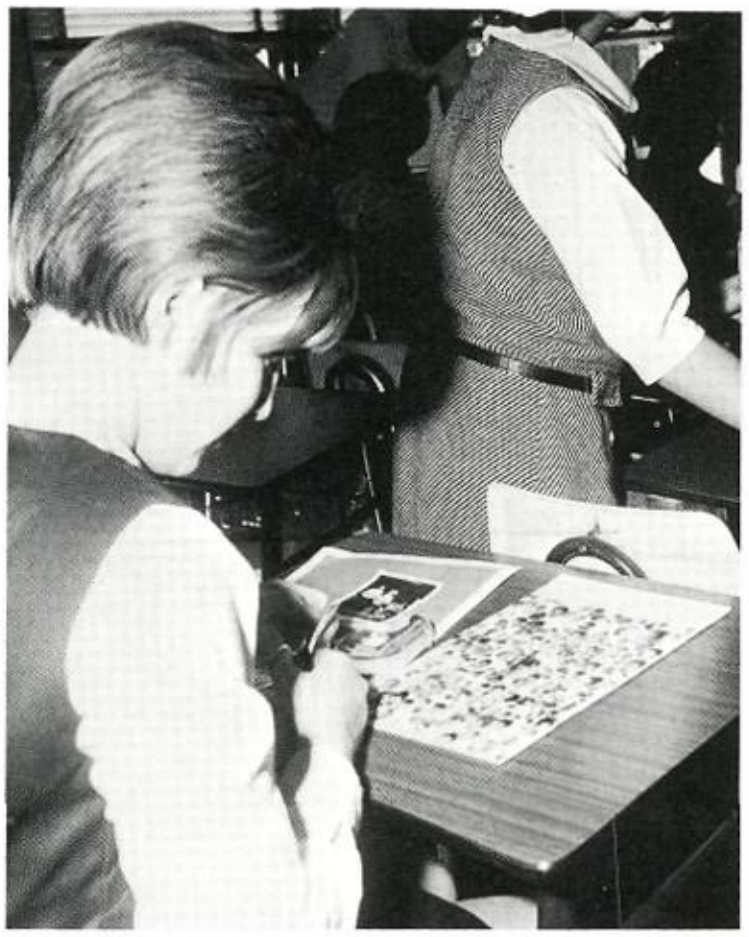
Price Increase Permits Bigger '66 Eagle

This is the impression that many staff members have at deadline time.



Ann Tipton works on the Senior section "heads page." The increase of the Eagle's price, which allowed for a bigger book, made such novelty pages as that one possible.

Sheila Walker, freshman, and Denise Eskridge, sophomore, confer on their respective class sections.

Choirs Plan First Long Trip

The RHS choirs were kept busy preparing for the Buccaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi this spring. Mr. Figg sponsored not only their musical studies, but also their many money-raising projects. The choirs had a pay assembly and sold fruitcakes, magazines, and candy to raise money. RHS is hoping that the three choirs, along with the band, will take sweepstakes at the festival.

The Girls Choir and Concert Choir sing music ranging from religious selections to modern jazz. The select group of Madrigal Singers perform sixteenth century music and dress in colorful costumes.

Each year at the last home football game, the band honors the senior girl whom they wish to represent them as Band Sweetheart. This year's nominees were Debbie Harlow, Margaret Okerberg, Sallie Thompson, Jonathel Williams and Judy Worth. On the basis of popular vote, Debbie Harlow was elected Sweetheart, and received the traditional roses, kiss, and ride around the stadium.

Each band member devotes one afternoon a week to the rehearsal of his particular section. (Pictured here is a combined low brass and cornet section.

Band Adds More "Firsts" to Annual Events

The Eagle band placed sixth in the All-state band this year, the most that any Texas High school put in. The students qualified by placing high enough in their sections at all-region to go to Area eliminations. At the All-State convention two bands were selected, the All-State Concert Band and All-State Reading Band. Of special note are Kelbert Taylor, who placed first in all the bassoons in Texas, and Billie Good, who was second in all the flutes. Left to right, the All-State members are Billie Good, Phil Warren, Joey Frank, Kelbert Taylor, Debbie Harlow, and David Ammerman.

If plans for the new auditorium work out as scheduled, the Eagle Band has given its last concert in the gym; but there will still be many pep rallies to come which just would not be the same anywhere but in the RHS gym.

"RHS," "floating down the field to the music of the school fight song, "On Wisconsin," will be a memory equaled only by the singing of the Alma Mater. This year, for the first time, the formation was used as the finale to the band's show at Interscholastic League Marching Contest. Movies of The Eagle Band at this contest are always requested by high school and college directors all over the United States.

Another first for the Eagle band was its invitation to the University of Oklahoma band to perform at our halftime the weekend that they were in Dallas for the Texas-OU game. In return for a great halftime performance, Richardson families took Sooners into their homes that Friday night.

One of the band's several civic contributions was their performance at the Veterans' Day ceremonies at Hillcrest Memorial. They participated in all Richardson parades and the annual State Fair parade, as well as playing at the grand opening of Northpark and the world premier of The Rare Breed.

Livia Simon of Buenes Aires, Argentina, better known to many by her nickname, Pitzee, is living with Sue Stewart this year on the American Field Service program. The US is the fourth country with which Livia has ties; she was born in Italy where her parents were refugees from Hungary and has spent most of her life in Argentina. The following is her message to the natives of her fourth "home":

"To come to Richardson was the greatest experience I ever had. Living the American style of life and sharing your joys, hopes and sorrows makes me feel attached to 'you all.' I am going home full of happy memories and everlasting experiences."

AFSer Hanna-Liisa Valkeejarvi from Pori, Finland, who is staying with Mary Margaret Halford, had the following to say about her American year:

"Some people say that Finns don't believe before they see. This is the reason I came to America. I have to throw aside my skeptical Finnish mentality and adopt a strong belief that there is really something on this side of the Atlantic Ocean!

"I have learned to love this people here. I have learned to think they are like we are, and we are like they are. This is the greatest experience I have ever had—to have learned to accept people over the world in spite of their differences."

When Hasi Scholing of Germany says, "Americans are so great. Really!" her sincerity makes each American want to live up to her opinion. Hasi is working in a German home and attending two classes here.

Swedish Rotary student, Anne Gentzel, has entered into all phases of school life with enthusiasm: clubs, contests, and classes. She lives with the same family who hosted her sister Lena three years ago.

Four Foreign Students Make an Exchange of Understanding

Exchange students (left to right: Hanna, Anne, and Livia) wave to the crowd as the AFS float moves into the homecoming parade. The theme of this float was "Eagles Around the World," a reminder that RHS has exes all over the world.

Hanna and Livia, who are sponsored by American Field Service and aided financially by student donations, hold the Mayor's official proclamation concerning AFS Day in Richardson (December 11).

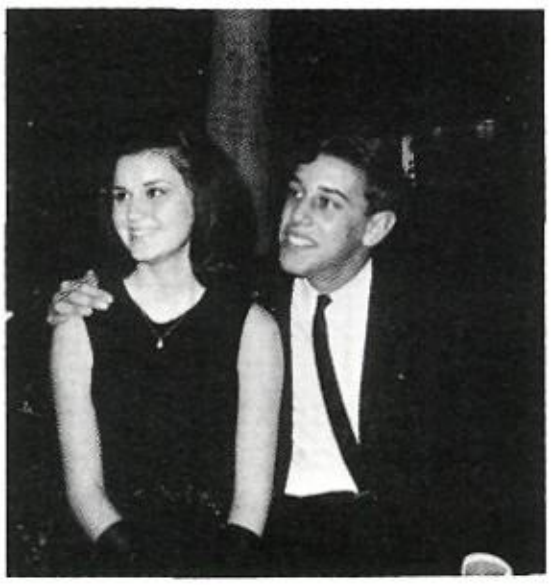
An important part of an exchange student's experience is living in an American home and adopting a new family. Here, "sisters" Sue Stewart and Livia Simon relax at the band slumber party.

Proms Highlig

Linda Clark, chosen as Pal Club Sweetheart, and her date, Wray Curtis, admire the bouquet given her at the dance.

Reed Chambers, Hanna Valkeejarvi, Mauricia Lutz, and Jeff Miller seem to be caught unawares by the photographer.

Pal Club President Kenny Bean present exchange students, Hanna Valkeejarvi and Livia Simon with pairs of the traditional Texas boots.



Mauricia Lutz and Jeff Miller listen to the combo and take a rest.

These two couples seem to be having as much fun listening as dancing

Kenny and the Casuals provided the music for the dance. The overwhelming opinion of them was "great".

ıt Year

Each year the Pal Club and the Key Club each hold proms that are the talk of the school. This year was no exception for both proms were better than ever. The Pal Club dance was held in the Frito-Lay Tower, and the Key Club dance was held in the Apparel Mart.

President Jamie Mendenhall and Treasurer Sam Humphreys present Key Club Sweetheart Prissy Ducote with a bouquet of roses.

Two combos provided continuous music to dance by, and one was The Royals shown here.

The exotic decor of the Apparel Mart made the evening a bigger success than ever. The group at right seems to be enjoying just chatting. Seated clockwise starting on the right are Paul Cabness, Diane Wright, Patty Callahan, Ted Barron, Sharon Jetton, Windy Edwards, and Marsha Davis and her date.

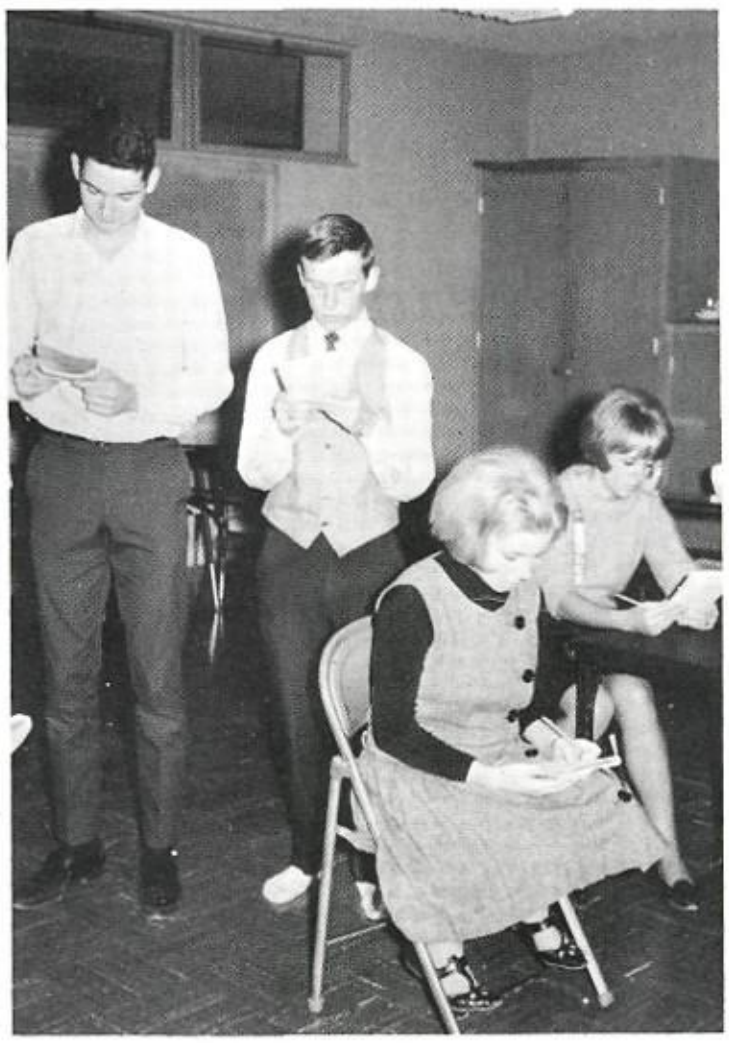
New Facu
Sponsor

Cadet band members take a few minutes to just sit back and listen to comments and criticism in order to improve their developing organization.

Mr. Gordon Collins came to RHS from Arlington this year. He is director of the Cadet Band, a musical organization that develops students who were not yet ready for the Eagle Band at the fall auditions. The Cadet Band entered Interscholastic League concert competition for the first time last year and was awarded a II (excellent) rating by two judges and a I (superior) rating by their third judge.

The combined RHS, and West Junior High orchestra has existed for two years as a class program. At Tuesday night rehearsals wind and percussion members from the Eagle band round out the orchestra. A concert was held February 4th for the Elementary, RHS, and Lake Highlands orchestras for the purpose of showing great progress of the program. Under the direction of Mr. Dan Swain, the string program has greatly increased in depth and quality.

y Members Cultural Activities



Mike Joyce, Dan Lauderdale, Pam Ralston, and Boo Curry intently study their scripts for the Playhouse RHS production, The Curious Savage, also directed by Mr. Baker.

Jim Hoyt, Alexis Pedden, and Dan Lauderdale rehearse a scene from The Mouse That Roared.

"Here's the bomb," Reed Chambers announces. "Handle it carefully."

y Stringer, Jeff Miller, and eve Cook turn Karen Sims to the "curious savage."

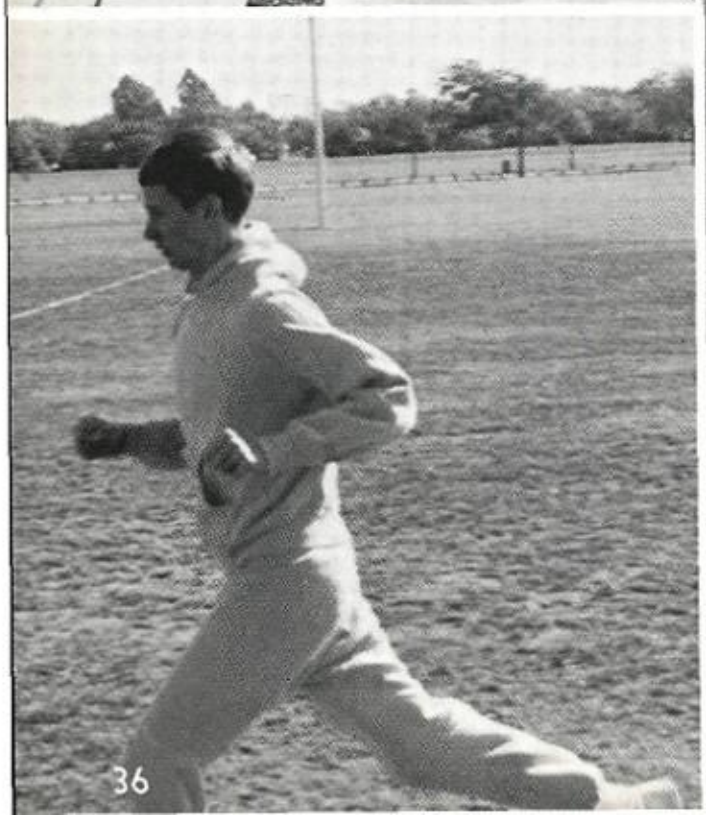
COURTESY
IBERTY SIGN CO.

This sign in the foyer of the gym, provided a last laugh for Eagle fans before the suspense of the many great games within.

Karen "Batgirl" Price has just swooped down to support the chimney on the RHS roof. Or has she really just swiped a sheet out of the clinic?

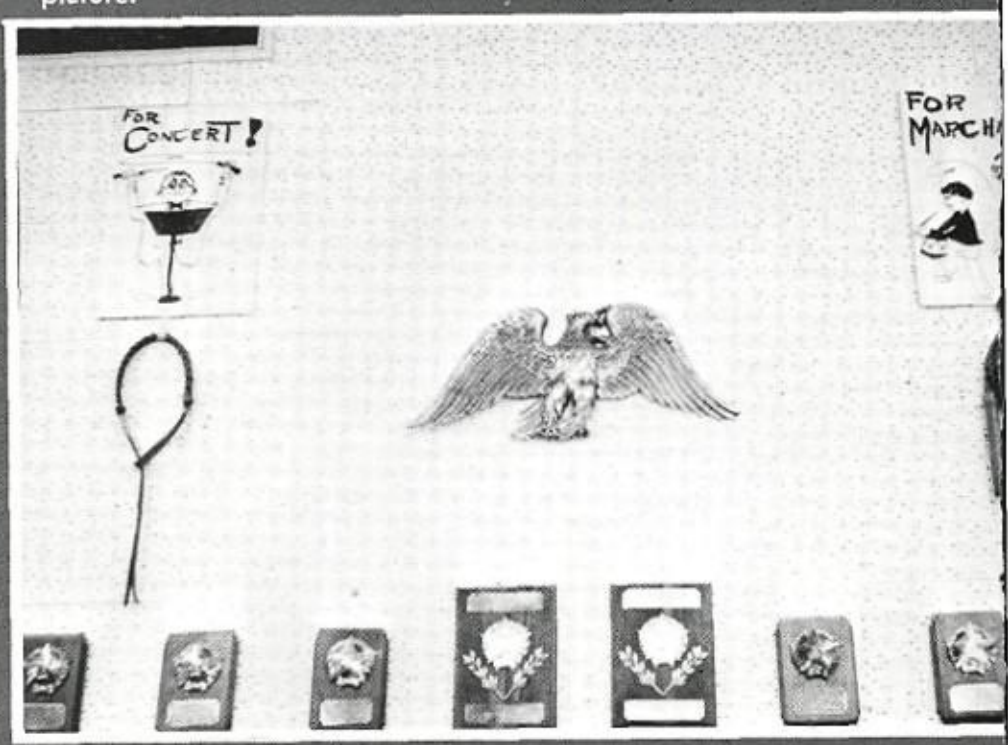


An unidentified Eagle trackman limbers up before a meet. The track team devotes long hours with little support or recognition in order to augment the glory of RHS.

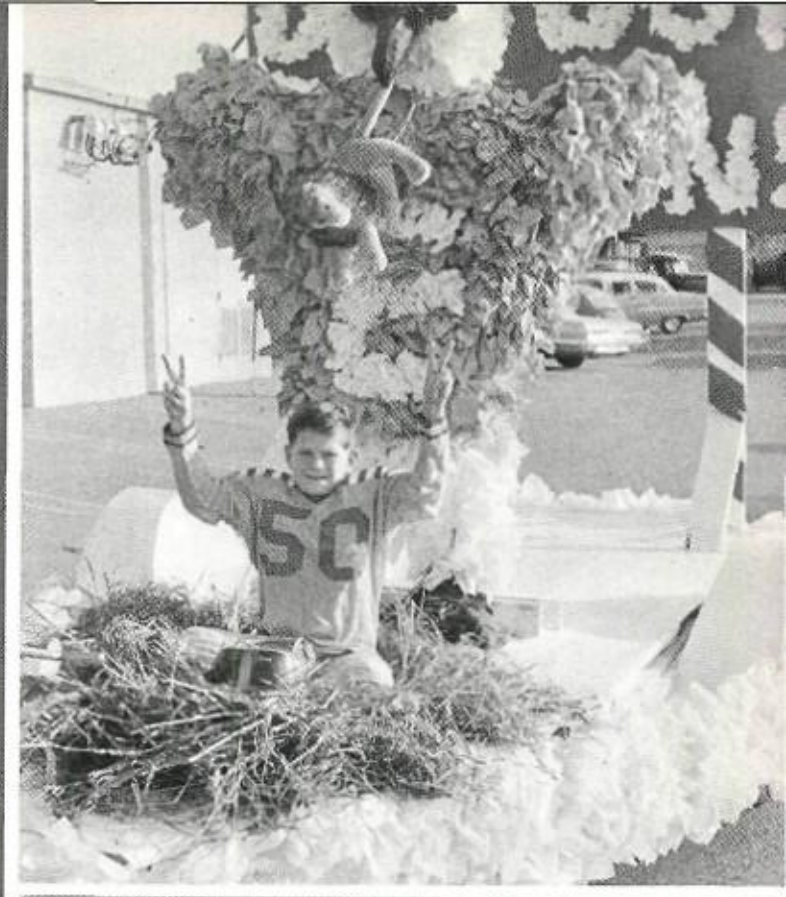
Room door decorations created by various organizations and enterprising individuals as well as the festivity in the study as evidenced below, added to holiday spirit around RHS. A deeper spirit was demonstrated by the student body.

The classroom is for more than just studying obviously.

Another "decorated" room is the band hall, but probably only a band member can truly appreciate the meaning of those posters, and the pride in the trophies, only a few of which can be seen in this picture.

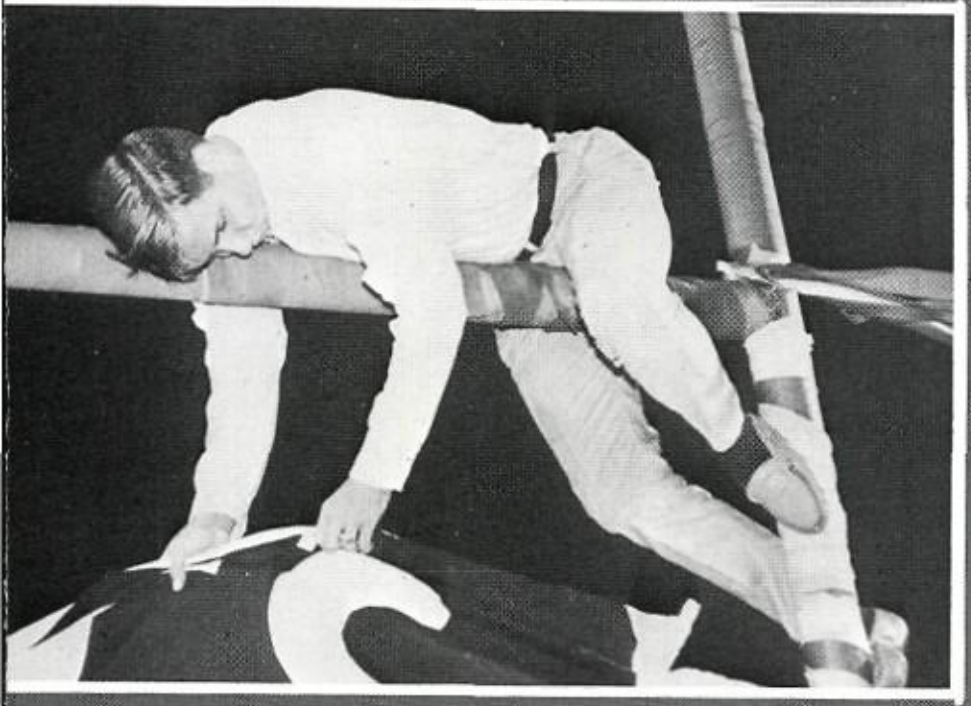


There was a good turnout and spirit ran high at the basketball games this year, as the Eagles came so close to the District title.



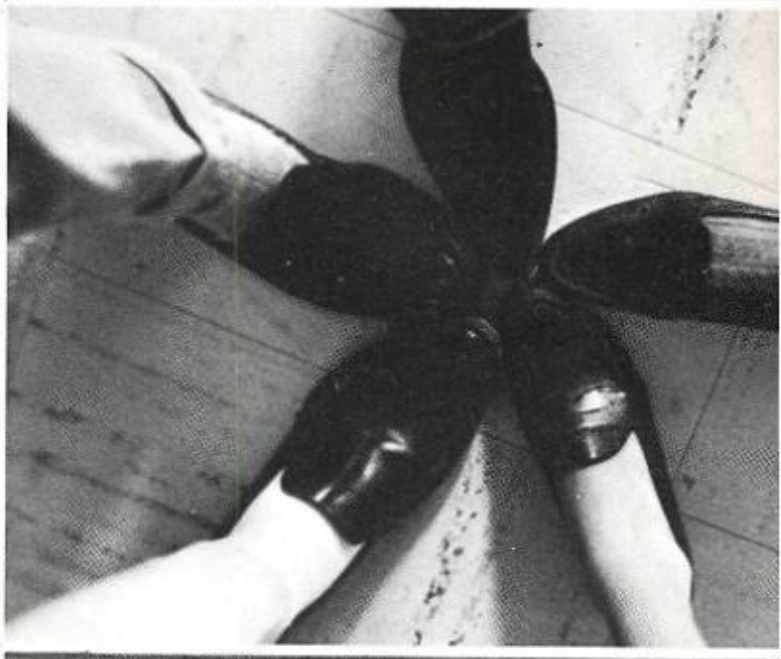
The prize-winning Student Council float speaks for the entire student body's pride and confidence in the Eagles.

Jack Ayres demonstrates true spirit and loyalty as he perches on the high and windy goalpost.



George Vanderslice and Kaye Mackey are . . . well, dancing. What else?

Posters are one of the biggest contributors to school spirit. Janey Billings and Barbie Johnson hang one that has an important message.



There isn't really much to say about this picture except five seniors have feet.

Barbie Johnson, Patsy Foster, Vicki Veerman, and, in the back, Denise Bullard, and mascot, Wilson Pietzsch, hang together in support of RHS.

Courage is Dan Madden's motto. It has to be around Sallie Thompson (left) and Margaret Okerberg.

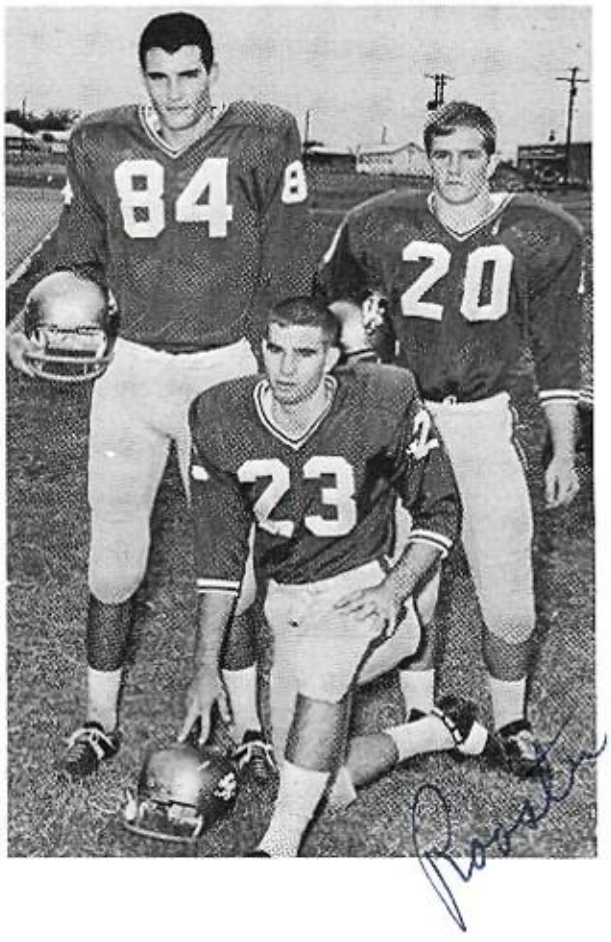
The Eagles went through a season of re-construction in 1965. With 6 returning lettermen and 4 starters, Coach Simpson found many promises for the '66 year. The Warbirds posted a 4-5-1 season and finished in a tie for sixth place with Garland, as Denison took the crown. The bright spots of the year were the play of Seniors: Wray Curtis, Jerry Thompson, Jim Frazier, John Gangstad, and Jim Swords, and Juniors: Andy Matthews, Mike Martin, Mike Franklin, and Art DeVitalis.



TEAM CAPTAINS: Wray Curtis, Jerry Thompson, and John Gangstad

Penalties, Panthers Stun Eagles

The Richardson Eagles fought hard and tough in the season opener but failed to handle the Dallas champs. Brian Blessing's bone-crushing runs stole the show as the Eagles were only able to tally once. Jerry Thompson's five yard run saved face as the Warbirds were clipped 23-6.

Eagles Scratch Arlington . . .

The Eagles came out clawing and never stopped until they had scratched a 7-0 win out of Arlington. The Colts put up a struggle throughout the entire game and sent chills through the 8,000 fans until Andy Harvey scored the only time on a 5-yard jaunt around end. Max Ruhman made it 7 and the Warbirds made it stick and walked into the hot dressing room with their first victory of 1965.

The Denton Broncos came to town like a ball of fire but got kicked 48-19. An 80-yard kickoff return by Jerry Thompson and a 40-yard runback of an interception by Mike Franklin topped off the barrage. With a tie for first place, the Eagles worked hard and studied for Garland.

Eagles, Garland

Battle to a Tie

The Garland Owls had a jinx against Richardson that was almost broken. A fumble in the backfield was all that kept the Eagles from breaking the jinx. Mike Franklin set up the only Eagle score on a dashing jaunt down to the Garland 16-yard line. Max Ruhman made it 7 and that lone point proved to save a tie. The Eagles held this lead until the waning moments of the game. With 90 seconds remaining, the Warbirds put on a stand that stopped the Owls at the 20-yard line. But the freak accident occurred and they moved in for the score and kicked the extra point for a 7-7 tie.

Eagles Profit from Journey to Paris

The Eagles had the crowd and it would have been unbearable had they not won 25-20. Better than a 1,000 students caught the train to watch Mike Franklin lead the Eagles up and down the Paris Junior College field. The Birds had a 14-0 lead trimmed and tied after they had taken advantage of a pair of breaks. Ret Little passed to Wray Curtis to set up the first score and Mike Franklin raced everyone for the other. Jim Frazier booted a 35-yard field goal to put the Eagles in front at the half. The Birds stormed back for a score in the third period and got a safety in fourth to wrap-up the scoring.

The Eagle spirit was a little shy and not big enough for the Carrollton Lions as the Lions spoiled Homecoming 13-6. The running of Jim Swords and the defense of John Gangstad wasn't shy at all as they led the Eagles within range several times only to be stopped short of the goal.

Miss Barbara Boo Curry Is Wed to Leonard E. Burton

Miss Barbara Boo Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Curry, 6115 Shadycliff, and Leonard E. Burton, 8226 Park Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav C. Schmidt Jr. of Houston, exchanged marriage vows Saturday.

The Rev. Don R. Benton officiated at the ceremony in Perkins Chapel, SMU, and the bride was escorted by her father.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Robert L. Whittaker of Cincinnati, Ohio, sister of the bride, and Mr. Schmidt.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Hancock, Miss Carolyn Hight of Chatham Township, N.J., and Miss Beth Thompson.

Groomsmen were Albert Schmidt, brother of the bridegroom; Edward Scown Jr. and Colyar McIlheran. Mr. Hancock and Mr. Whittaker seated guests.

After a trip to Hawaii, the newlyweds will live in Dallas.

The bride is a senior at SMU, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Alpha Lambda Delta. Her husband received his degree from SMU.

HOMECOMING QUEEN BOO CURRY AND WRAY CURTIS

The nerves were tense and the crowd roared when Boo Curry was announced Homecoming Queen of 1965. She received the flowers, and the traditional kiss and crown was presented by Senior Class President Rick Davis. As Boo led her court around the field, a tremendous hand went up for her and Carolyn Hight, Priscilla Ducote, and Lou Ann Ohlen. At the Homecoming Dance, the court was honored by a spotlight dance and it added to a very happy occasion.

Mr. Curry smiles with joy as Boo receives the roses at Homecoming. Also looking on are Rick Davis, Patsy Foster, and Steve Cook.

H.P. Overcomes Eagles' Drive

In mud, rain, and fog, the Eagles fought down to the wire but came out short again, 27-14. Behind the strong running of Jim Swords, the Eagles scored on a 70 yd. drive early but trailed 7-6. The Scots scored twice before half and led 21-6. Early in the fourth quarter, Frank Cowan slammed a Scot to the turf causing him to fumble. The Birds went 30 yards in 3 plays with Swords going the last 3. It looked good but the Scots scored again making the final 27-14.

Flying High

Our mighty Eagles closed the 1965 football season on a great note. It was a sharp 10-0 win over Sherman. Wray Curtis set up the first score with an intercepted pass. Jim Frazier sent a 35-yard field goal soaring through the uprights and the Warbirds left at the half with a 3-0 lead. The Bearcats came charging out but it was short-lived as John Gangstad came up with another intercepted pass. Jim Swords rambled 37 yds. and Mike Franklin flew 31 yds. and Swords blasted through for the score.

The Eagle round-ballers started the '65-'66 season with a tough schedule, worked hard, and ended up with a satisfying pre-district record. The Eagles also placed 4th in the Fort Worth Tournament and won the consolation trophy in the Richardson Tourney.

With returning all-district starter Rick Prewitt, and a little help from move-in Carl Stanley, the Eagles hoped for a very successful year as they entered district.

HP Becomes Last Victim

During the second round of zone play, the Eagles suffered their first loss. This loss was to the Garland Owls. After the Owl game, the Eagles were not to be put down, so they went on to win to the next three games and to end up in a deadlock for the zone title.

After the loss to Garland, the Eagles invaded the nest of Mesquite and took some of the sting out of the Skeeters by defeating them 81-76. Prewitt, enjoying his finest scoring effort, poured through 43 points to account for more than fifty per cent of the Eagle's points. The Warbirds then invaded the Scots gym and were ready for quite a wild game, but the Scotties had a trick up their sleeve—they tried to stall the whole game and take advantage of little mistakes. The strategy almost worked, but the Eagles finally came around and pulled seven points ahead in the final quarter to sack it up. After having the game called off once, the Eagles finally had their last shot at Carrollton, a tough game anytime. The game at Eagleville was a must for our cagers and they let the Lions know it. Four starters hit in double figures to show the great balance of our team when we need it. After all was said and done, the Eagles won 58-48, and they also found themselves in a tie with Garland.

An old habit—outjumping opponents.

Here Rick is going after one of his many rebounds which gained him an average of twelve per game.

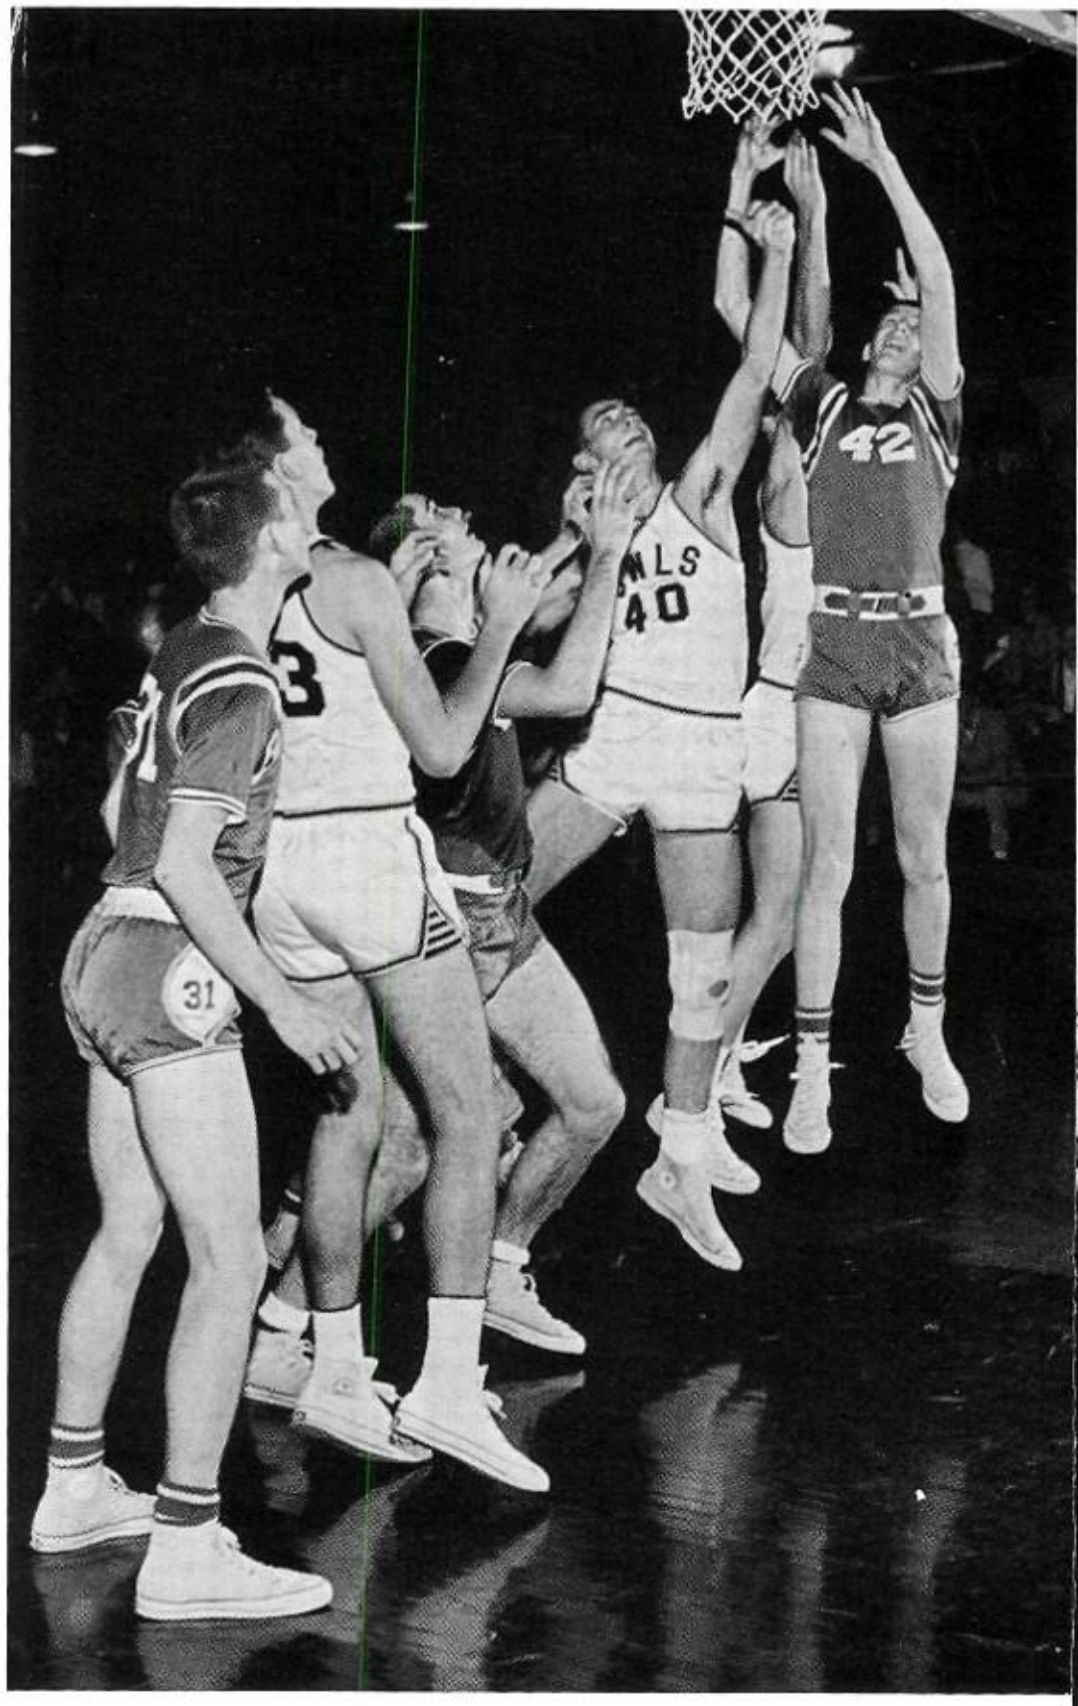
As a sophomore, Rick broke right into the starting lineup immediately and started every game that year, and has started every game ever since. This first year, Rick scored 300 points, his junior year he scored 500 and was selected to the first team All-District in both papers, and his final year he averaged 27.3 points per game and raised his total scoring for three years to 1,300 points. Also, in this, his senior year, Rick received many honors. Among them are the following: first team All-District in both papers, All-Greater Dallas-first team, All-Metro-first team, and bringing the honors closer to home, Rick was chosen Mr. Sports, the first time anyone but a football player has received the honor. It is also very possible that Rick will become an All-Stater because he is one of the top prospects in the state, with one of the top scoring averages.

Rick has worked hard for everything he has received; and it is because of his dedication to basketball that this page is dedicated to him.

Eagles Fall to Owls in Playoff

Senior cheerleaders and mascot watch final game with sorrowful emotions.

After finishing the first round of zone play on top of the South Zone, the Eagles fell to the Garland Owls for their first defeat of the season. The Warbirds came right back and won their next three games. At the end of the regular season the Owls and the Eagles were tied for the title, therefore a playoff was required. The location was Moody Coliseum and the stakes were high for this, the deciding game. The Eagles jumped off to a quick lead, but soon relinquished it to the Owls, never to regain it. When the final buzzer sounded the Eagles had been defeated by a strong Owl team but there were many tears shed in the lonely dressing room. We should not only be thankful to the team for the great year, but also to the many loyal fans who remained with the cagers to the very end.



Johnson shows rebounding strength while Prewitt prepares to go up and Speer watches on.

Under new coach Don Davis, the "B" Bombers went through a year of tough preparation for next year's varsity. Although about twenty-five to thirty first tried out for the team, many found that high school ball is a far cry from junior high. Only those who have a true love for the game remained after the first few days of the kind of workouts Coach Davis is famous for. He has, indeed, a very fine way of finding out which boys really wish to devote their time to the game. After the final weeding out, the remaining boys worked very hard to prepare for next year, and there is much talent within these boys.

BASKETBALL SWEETHEART

CATHY CANADA

A vote of the 1965-66 Eagle cagers selected "Most Beautiful" Cathy Canada as their sweetheart. Cathy represented RHS at the Dr. Pepper Queen Contest, and indeed represented us well by being selected as first runner-up.

Cathy serves RHS well as cheerleader, a member of RHGC, a member of the Honor Society, and by being chosen a school favorite this year.

For reasons such as this, Cathy attained this well-deserved honor.

The golf team this year is made up of two teams and the alternates, but anyone can move up or down at any time because one's rating is determined every week. At this time the first team consists of Rick Baughn, Gerald Beane Larry Brittain, and Rob Hargis. The second team of Bruce Byfield, Joe James, Steve Magner, and Bobby Rust. At this time the alternates are Jimmy Butler, Gary Cline, Robert Lee, Foley Means and Mark Owens.

To this date, the team has participated in five tournaments and won four of them. Because of these strong showings, we feel that they will do well in district.

Eagle Baseball 1966

The 1966 baseball Eagles started official workouts February 14 in hopes for a spectacular season. After a second place finish last year, the Eagles hope to even better their record. Ten lettermen return, including five starters. Among the starters are: Donnie Russell—all-district shortstop and team's leading hitter; Don Carrington—all-district pitcher and team's Most Valuable Player of 1965; Steve Tisserand—team's leading fielder at first-base; Jerry Blackwood—pitcher, and Frank Honeycutt—centerfielder. With help from other lettermen Wray Curtis, Greg Kosan, Bobby Baxter, Jim Phillips, Wiley Fraze, and Ray Tatum; and move-ins Thad Kenney and Tim Cumiskey; and sophomores Gary Gartman and Jud Good; the Eagles look forward to a most successful season.

The RHS tennis team under Coach Harry started their season this year with a meet in Garland. Barbara Peavy and Janice Powell are the famous pair who play doubles and who did well in the meet. Barbara Peavy and Ann Conrad are the two returning lettermen. The other members of the team are Carol Curtis, Karen Sullivan, Patsy Grisak, Kathy Gibbs, and Stancy Jones.

The team practices during sixth period at Terrace and Floyd Parks in Richardson. This year the team is planning to enter the East Texas State Meet, the district meet at North Texas, and the Highland Park meet. Since the team is not restricted to playing just the teams in our district, they are able to play twelve high schools in the surrounding area.

GSL I Serves RHS

Cyndy Bain stops a moment while putting school news on the bulletin board.

Girls' Service League Chapter I has done much this year to serve RHS and our community. They started off the year by selling spirit buttons. They were a big success and did much to promote school spirit.

GSL is an organization which is here to serve the people of RHS and the city of Richardson. These girls have worked hard on all of their projects. Some of these include helping at the annual Children Development Center Chili Supper, giving a party for the children at the Denton State Home, and helping at PTA and open house.

The officers are Ann Tipton, president; Karen Price, vice-president; Nancy Carpenter, corresponding secretary; Jeanne Harrington, recording secretary; Lee Lovvorn, treasurer; Cyndy Bain, parliamentarian; and Mary Kay Bock, historian.

Through the sponsorship and guidance of Mrs. Gloria Snyder, GSL I has been a club of great service to RHS.

As the outside project for 1965-66, the Girl's Service League, Chapter II, selected the Ann Dalton and John F. Kennedy Centers in Dallas. The girls and boys in these homes are retarded, however educable and trainable. The GSL members visit the homes twice a month and have become well acquainted with the children. Through their experiences with the children, the girls are more aware of the needs of others.

The boys at John F. Kennedy Center enjoy the attention that Carol Blackford gives them.

Cindy Decker and Carla Ford entertain the girls by coloring.

GSL Shows Concern for Handicapped

Santa Claus, David Oliver, assisted the girls in giving a Christmas party for th children at Ann Dalton and John F. Kennedy Centers. Sandra Sissel and Johann Ernst give these girls their gifts.

The goals of Girls' Service League, Chapter II, are three-fold: to serve the school, the immediate community, and to serve the surrounding community. As service to the school, GSL has helped with victory dances, Open House, the basketball tournament, the regional marching contest, and Christmas project. Other projects sponsored by this club were a Spirit Bake Sale and a Valentine project. For the community service, the GSL furnishes babysitters for local PTA's. For service to surrounding community, the club visits a retarded children's center.

Under the direction of Mrs. Amy Thompson, the following officers guide the club: Mary Margaret Halford, president; Carolyn Hight, first vice-president; Carla Ford, second vice-president; Linda Mumaw, third vice-president; Janey Billings, treasurer; Carrie Burnett, historian; Pattiann Cremin, reporter; and Lou C. '66 Key Club

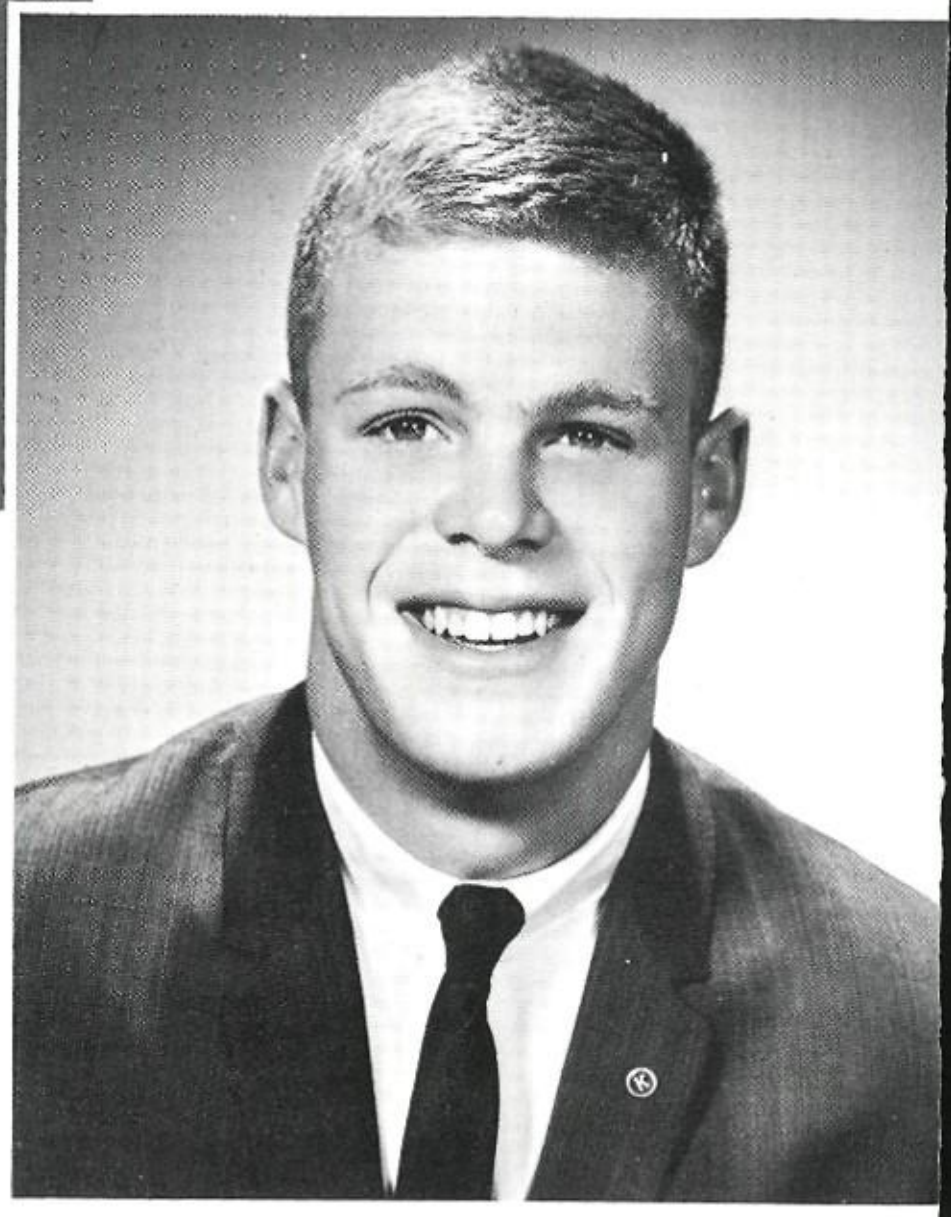
Under the leadership of their officers and Mr. Franklin, Key Club members have enjoyed a successful year with their prom, assembly, and visits to the Scottish Rite Hospital.

In Memoriam



Probably the most influential Key Clubber to come from the Texas-Oklahoma District of the Key Club international was William D. Harrison. After being elected Lt. Governor of the Greater Dallas Area, he initiated the following outstanding innovations: a parade held in Downtown Dallas annually to climax Key Club Week and a "Key Club of the Year" award granted to the most progressive club of our area. These are just a few of his many accomplishments.

After Bill's untimely death, we of the Richardson High School feel that the loss of this most promising life marks a tragic occurrence of the year 1966.

To many of us, this was also a deep personal loss, and, as one of our faculty members summarized, "Bill did more in the field of service work in his few years than most adults do in a lifetime."

"Hail, Hail, is the gang all here?"

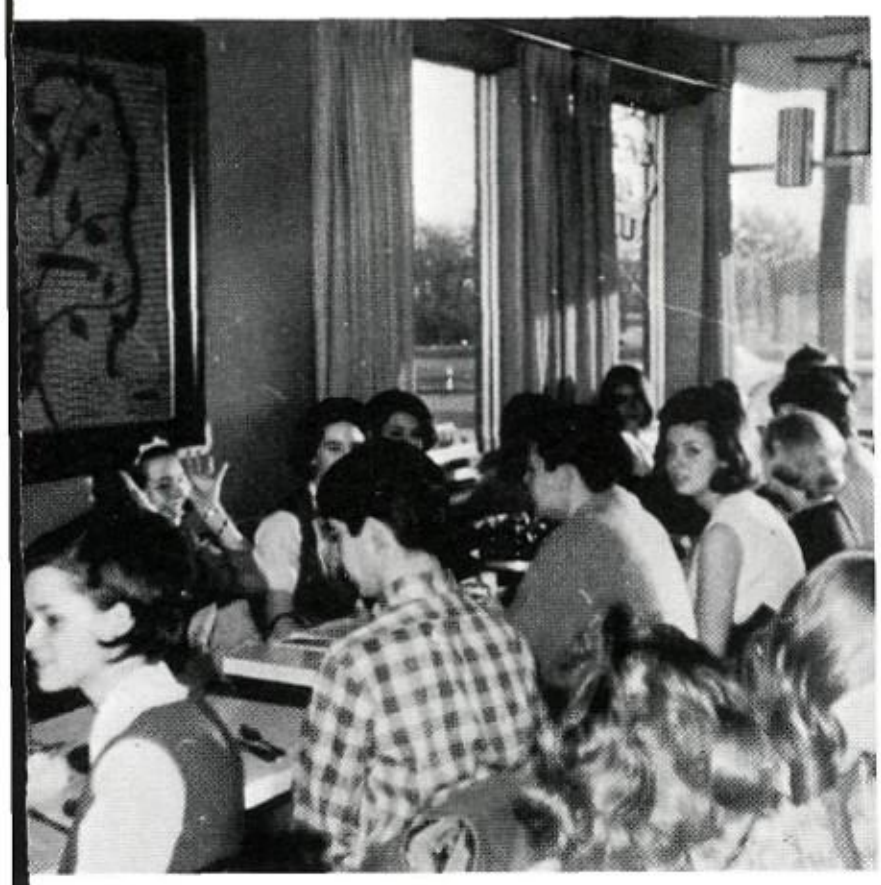
French Club Holds Garage Sale



At the Pancake Breakfast, French Clubbers manage to look cheerful despite sleepy eyes and growling stomachs.

The Advanced French Club was formed to give students interested in French an opportunity to learn more about the language, the French people, and their customs. In addition to its regular club meetings, the club has an informal meeting such as the Pancake Breakfast, once a month.

During the fall the French Club invited all French students to hear Mr. Postal tell of his native France. The club also sponsored a successful garage sale and entered a float in the Homecoming Parade.

Mr. Postal speaks to assembly of combined French Clubs.

JCL Initiates New Members

The RHS Chapter of Junior Classical League is a member of both state and national organizations. The purpose of the JCL is to encourage among young people an interest in and an appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome. RHS members participate in all school activities and compete in numerous scholastic and artistic contests at the state convention. In January, new members were inducted into the club at a gala banquet.

Grover sternly reminds Bonnie of the gravity of the situation.

The officers seem to find something amusing about the plans for the induction.

Winning the $25 first prize was the attractive Mexican float built by members of the PASF.

PASF Builds Winning Float

The Pan-American Student Forum is a working club of working people, whose goal is to establish and maintain better relations between the United States and Latin-American countries. Better understanding is important if we are to work together.

This year members collected clothes for the migrant worker's camp in McKinney, Texas and donated their time and effort on other school drives.

The main goal of the club has been, ". . . that justice and mutual understanding between the peoples of the American Continents can best be preserved through an enlightened citizenry."

Officers of the PASF this year are as follows:

Beginning French Club officers Kathy, Marsha, Julia, George, and Judy plan informative meetings.

At the meetings of the Beginning French Club, members learned about the country of France, her people, customs, and way of life. Several guest speakers informed the club of current trends in France today. Because of the high scholastic requirements the club encourages better grades and more interest in French as a language.

Beginning J.C.L. Sells Slaves

On March 23 the beginning JCL journeyed to Baytown, Texas for the annual convention. They entered in the two fields of History and grammar competition. Again this year the club members sold their services as slaves in the spring semester. The beginning JCL works to stimulate more interest in Latin.

Beginning J.C.L. officers David, Bill, Kay, and Carla prepare to be sold into slavery.

Successful Rehearsal Makes for . . .

The primary purpose of Playhouse R.H.S. is to help interested students increase their knowledge and appreciation of drama and backstage work through practical experience, either as actors or as members of backstage crews. Playhouse presents a three-act production during the fall semester each year and prepares a one-act production for U.I.L. competition with area schools. This year the three-act production given in December was "The Curious Savage". Members of the Playhouse crews also assist the Senior Class in the staging of its production during the spring semester.

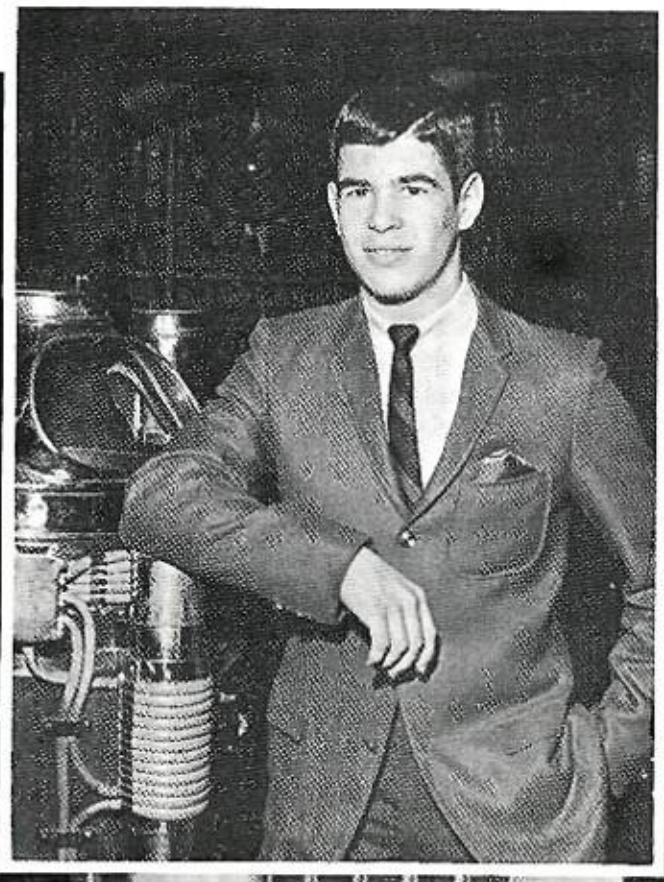
Bob Brown is a favorite of all the Freshmen. He was on the football team this year. His winning smile and wonderful disposition make Bob a favorite.



Hall of Honor

Carolyn Hight, a member of the National Honor Society for the past two years, in GSL for three years and vice president her Senior year, also a three-year member of Eaglettes and Lieutenant her Junior year and Captain her Senior year, is one of the most active students at RHS.

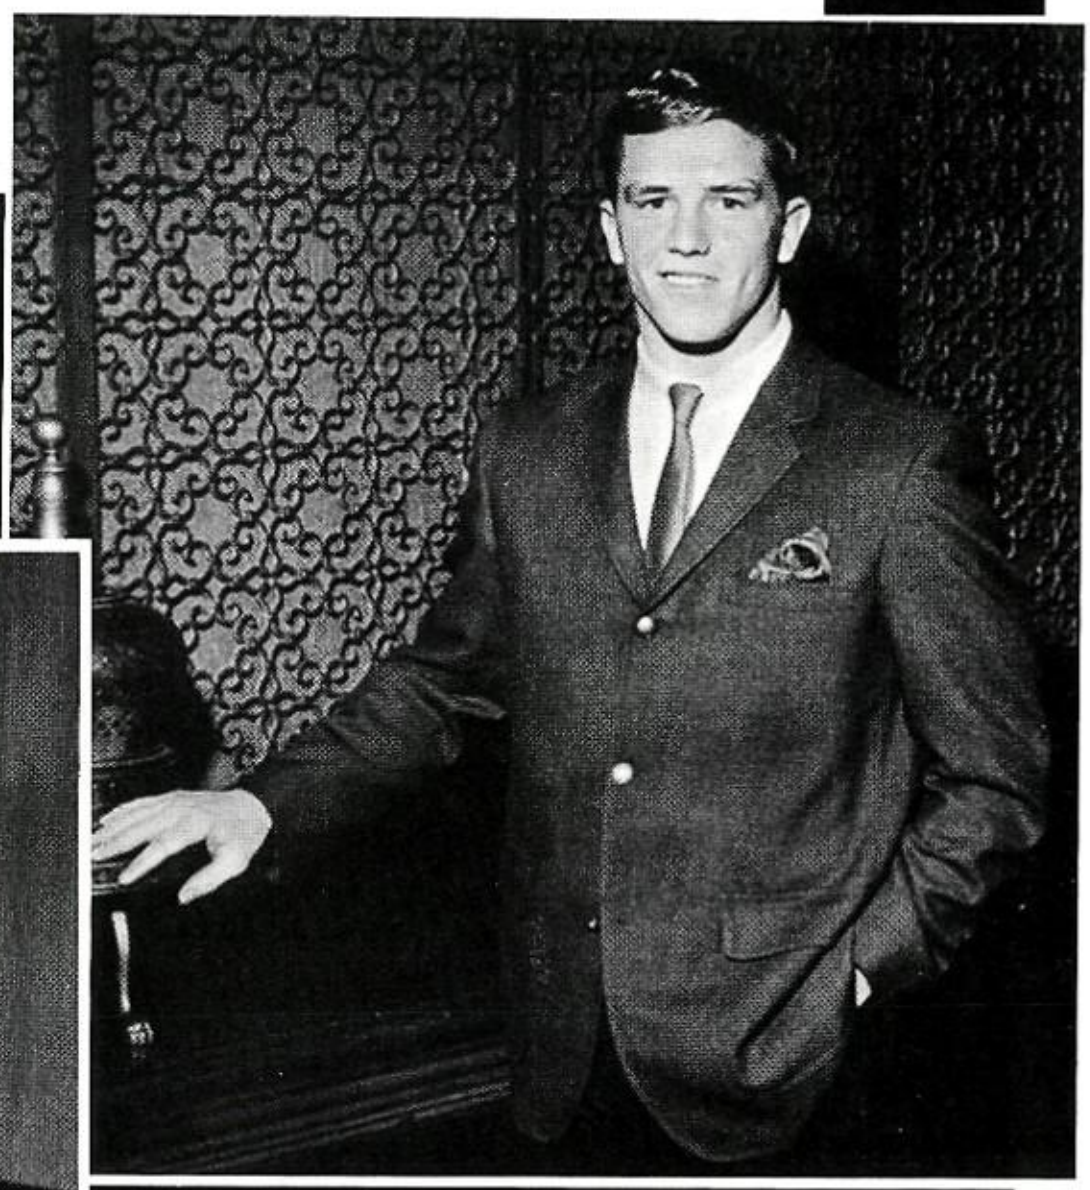
Mary Margaret Halford, one of the truly outstanding students to attend RHS, has served on the student council for four years and acted as historian her Junior year. She has been in the GSL for three years and served as president her Senior year. Besides these things, Mary Margaret has been in AFS and National Honor Society.

Charles Corbett has served on the Student Council for three years and served as vice-president his Senior year. He is in National Honor Society and serves well in the JCL.

Represents RHS

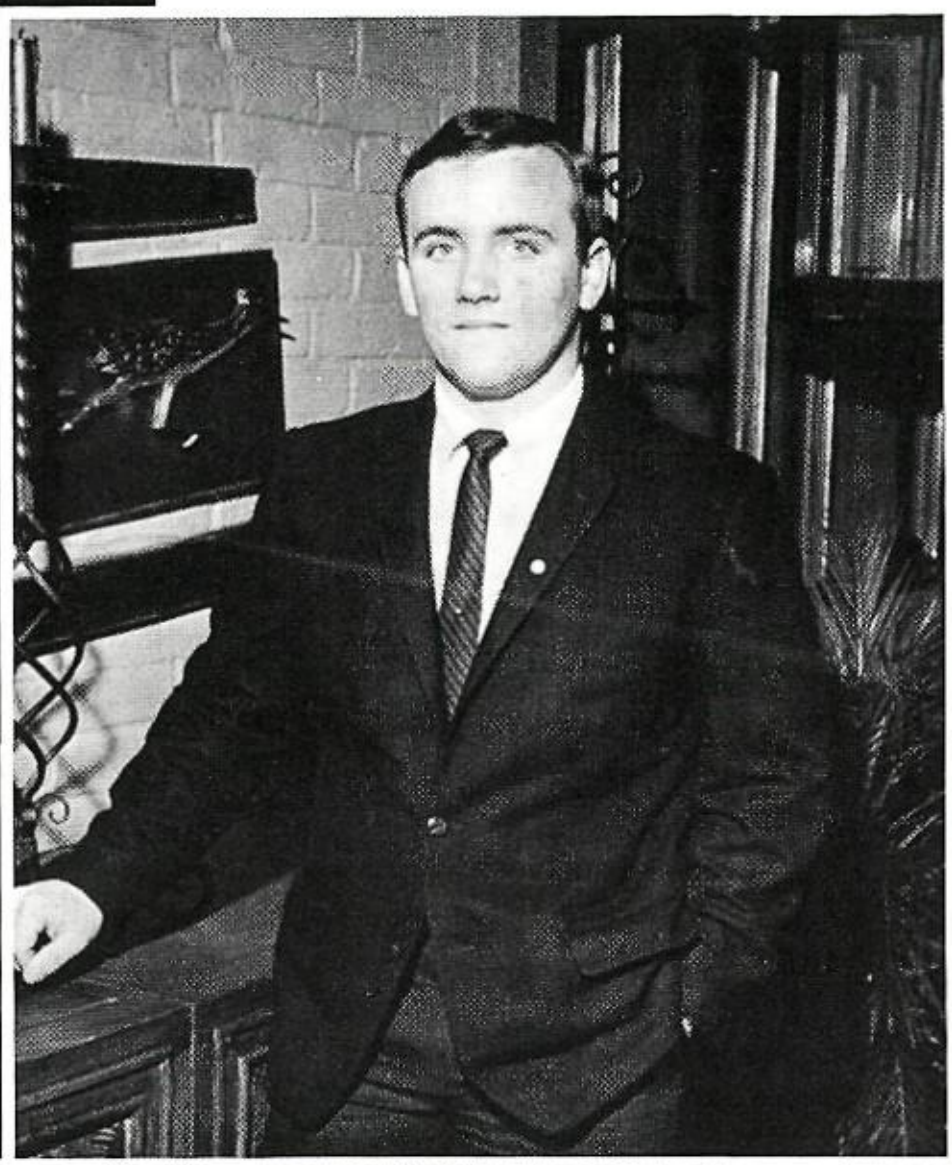
For the sixth year the Student Council elected eight Seniors to the RHS Hall of Honor. These students were chosen for the leadership and scholastic abilities they demonstrate in the classroom and extracurricular activities.

The Student Council compiled a list of Senior's names whom they felt had served the school well. The teachers rated the students on leadership, dependability, and scholarship. The eight seniors who were chosen to represent our school for the 1965-1966 RHS Hall of Honor are:



John Gangstad, the present president of the Junior Civitan, is RHS's only all-district football player for the '65 season. Besides being an outstanding athlete, John is in the Honor Society. These factors make him a truly great Richardsonite.

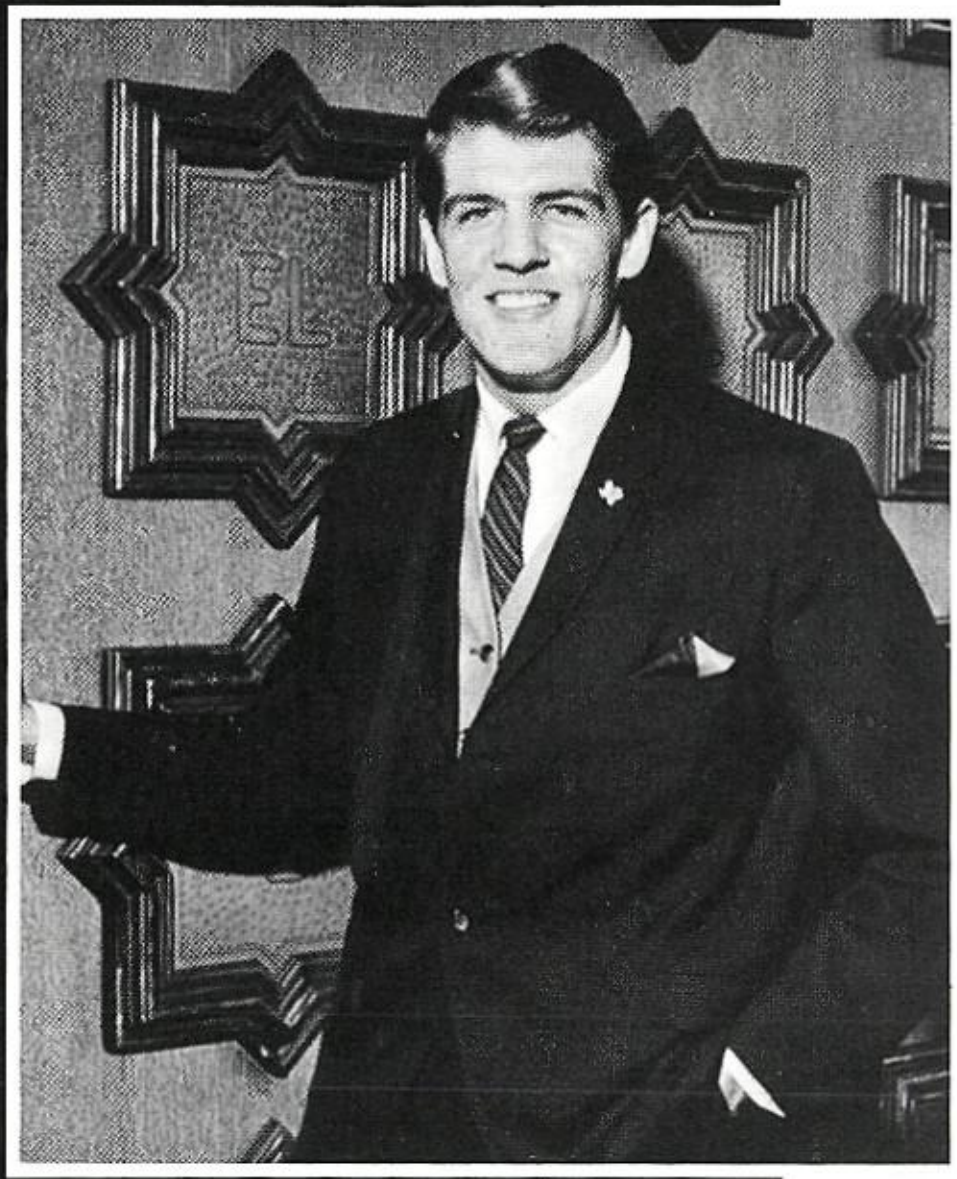
Kaye Mackey, a member of GSL, a Lieutenant in Eaglettes, and Editor of the Eagle, has served RHS well during her high school years.



Rick Davis is a hard working Senior, who racks up such credits as a member of the Key Club, the Honor Society and ranks tenth in his class. Rick was elected Senior class president.

George Vanderslice was selected to the Hall of Honor for a good reason; he can be said to be one of the most active students at RHS. George is the past president of the J.C.A.; he is the vice president of the Dallas Youth Council; he is the president of the Richardson Juvenile Jury and the chairman of the Dallas Juvenile Jury. George is the chairman of the Dallas Youth Board of "In" newspaper.

Donna Lawrence is a very deserving Senior because of her efforts she has displayed in the past years at RHS. Donna is Eaglette Lieutenant, and a member of GSL and National Honor Society.



Scholastic Jacket Winners

For the fourth year, Scholastic Jackets were given to RHS juniors and seniors who earned the greatest number of grade points during the first two six-weeks of the current school year and the preceding semester. Two percent of the juniors and four percent of the seniors received jackets. This year eight juniors and twelve seniors received awards. Five seniors received their second award. They are: Carolyn Ledbetter, La Donna Burke, Mary Malone, Mike Lynch, Roy Earle.

The students who had the honor of receiving Scholastic Jackets are: Carolyn Ledbetter, La Donna Burke, Mary Malone, Mike Lynch, and Roy Earle.

NHS Welcomes New Members

National Honor Society is a national organization consisting of students who maintain a high scholastic average, and who rate high in character, leadership, and service. A minimum average of 90 is required with no grade below 85.

This year the club has been carefully guided by Mike Lynch, president; Paul Helm, vice president; Debbie Harlow, secretary; and Judy Worth, treasurer. Miss Julia Darnall and Mrs. Madge Barnett sponsored the organization.

New member, Cathy Canada signs the roster, as Sec. Debbie Harlow and Pres. Mike Lynch look on.

Rick Matzen, Rick Davis, Terry Goodman, and Joe James wait anxiously for their names to be called.

A moment long awaited for—taking the Honor Society pledge.

National Merit Semi-Finalists

RHS proudly boasts its National Merit Semi-finalists. Each year a number of students are selected from the U.S. as being less than two percent of the graduating Seniors in the nation.

Dedication

For RHS, as well as the Senior Class of 1966, this was a year of firsts—Mr. Wooten's first year as principal, the first homecoming parade, Coach Simpson's first year as head of Eagle football. The staff of the Senior Section dedicates this portion of the Eagle to the members of the class of '66 with the hope that this section will always remind them of their senior activities, classes, classmates, and these firsts for RHS.

All hail to thee, our alma mater honored,
Richardson, we're loyal to you,
In days to come, your memories we'll
Through the years, we'll still be

"Come on Steve, it's time for another yell!"

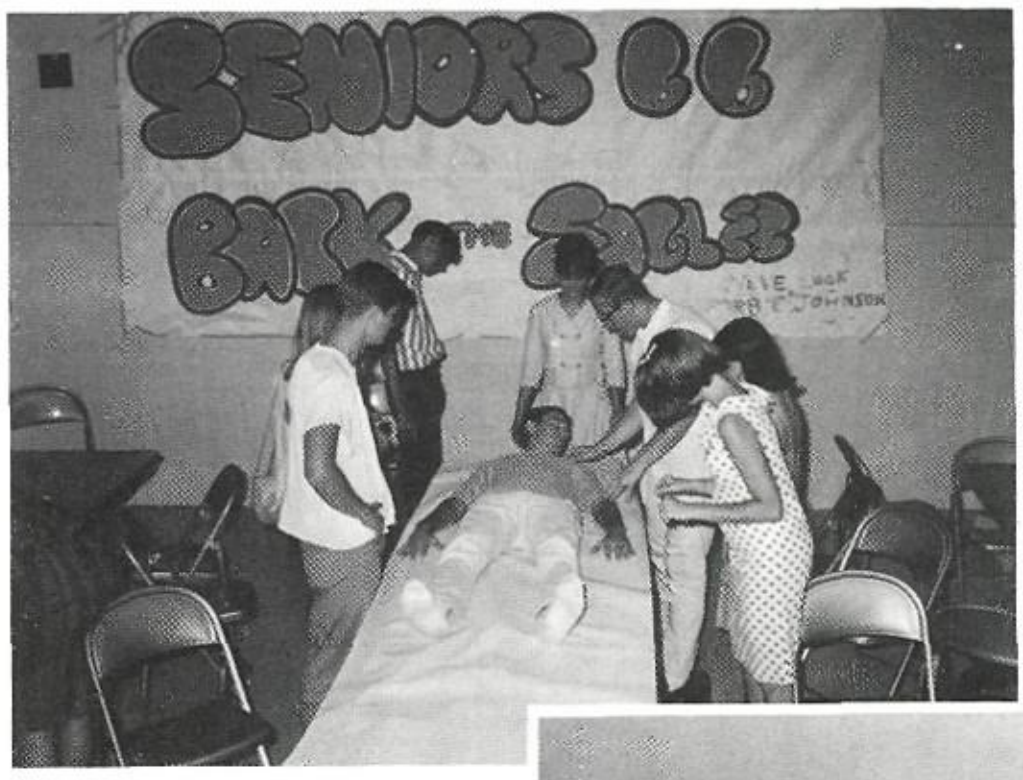
Mascot, Wilson Pietzsch, and cheerleader, Boo Curry, symbolize the school spirit of RHS.

Spirit

Senior Eaglettes perform a spirited routine end the football pep rallies.

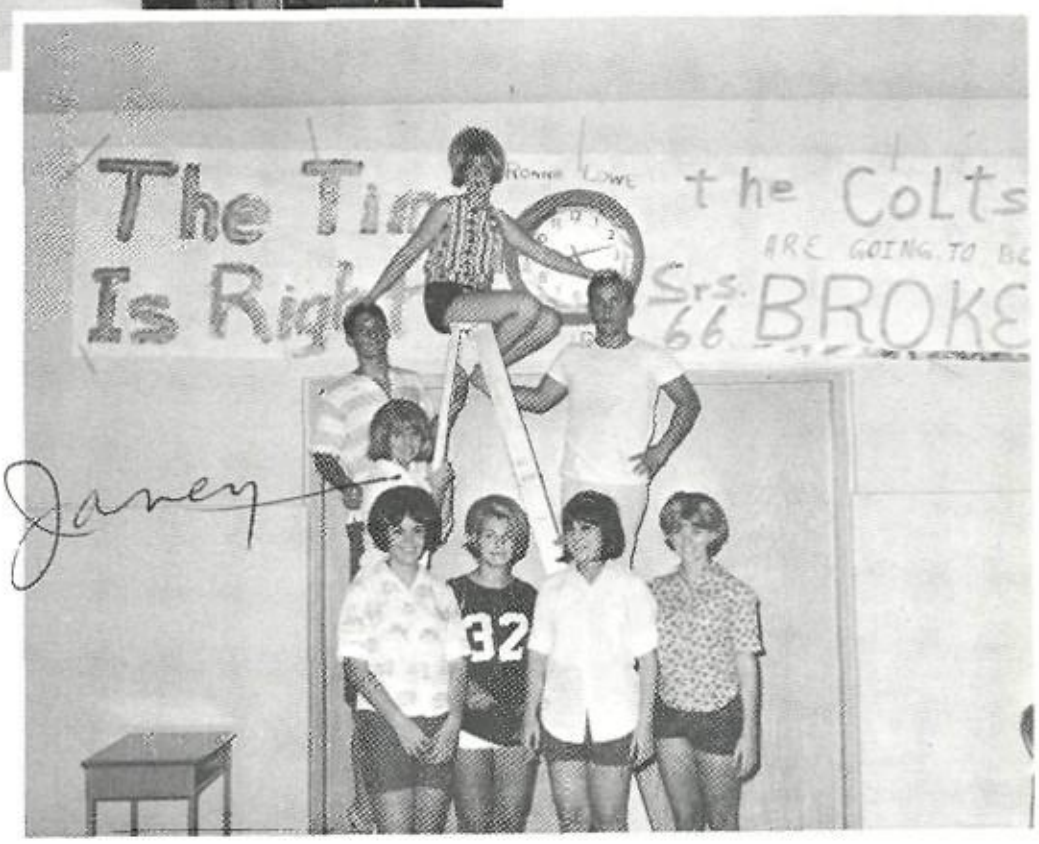
Senior, Ralph Skelton, climbs the bleachers to yell for another Eagle victory.

— 66 Proof



Self-sacrificing Eagle, Jerry Don Blackford, is always willing to offer his services at spirit poster parties.

The time is always right for these seniors to boost school spirit.



The cheerleaders perform last rites on the conquered lion, Cathy Canada.

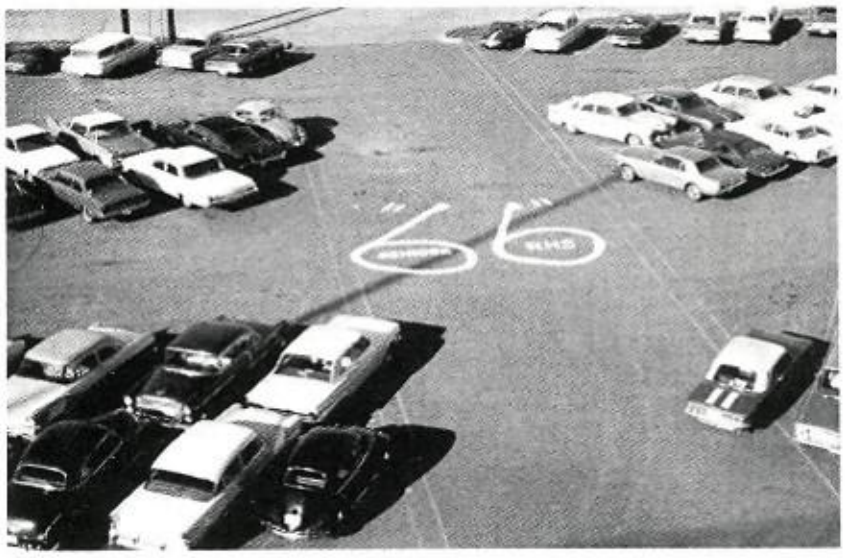
RHS
Firsts

The study hall took on a new appearance when the Christmas Spirit hit RHS.



"Seniors '66"

Ted Howell, Rob Faires, And Jimmy Spaduzzi faithfully guard the purple, spirit Milktruck.

Frank Jay wants to be first to see the "firsts".

n

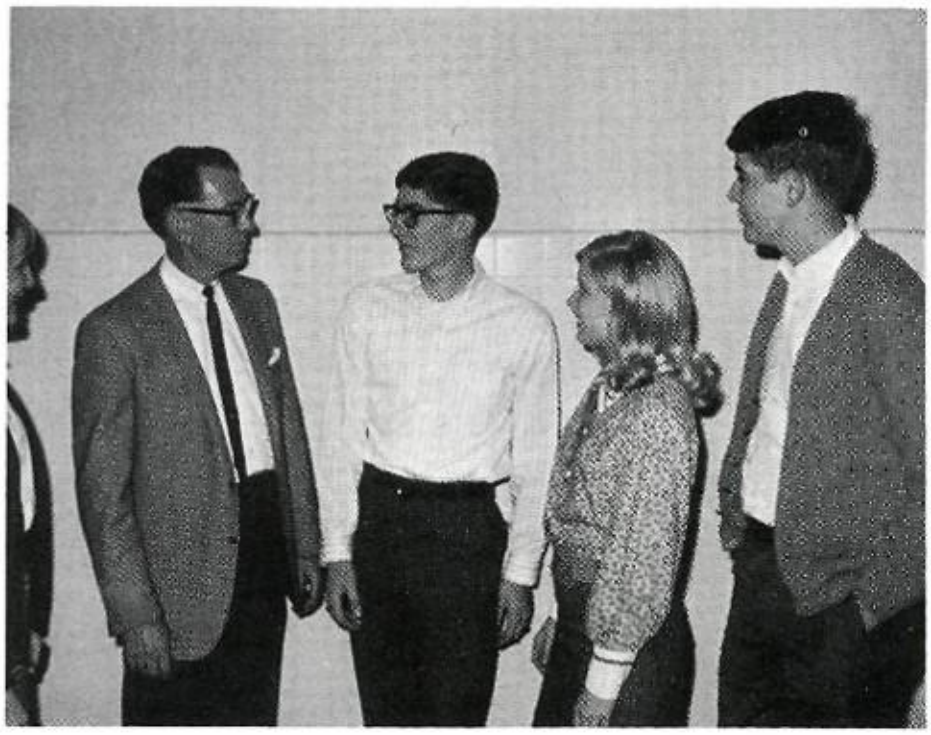
Football captains, Wray Curtis, Jerry Thompson, and John Gangstad talk over play with new head coach, Mr. Joe Simpson.



Mr. Wooten talks with Srs. Linda Clark, Paul Helm, and Dick Hicks as he starts his first year as principal.

Cheerleaders and Senior supporters guard the "Spirit Stick" from the underclassmen.

mecoming Parade marked a big first for the Senior ass.

AN INCOMPARABLE SHOWPLACE OF CHARM AND BEAUTY

INTERSTATE'S NEW

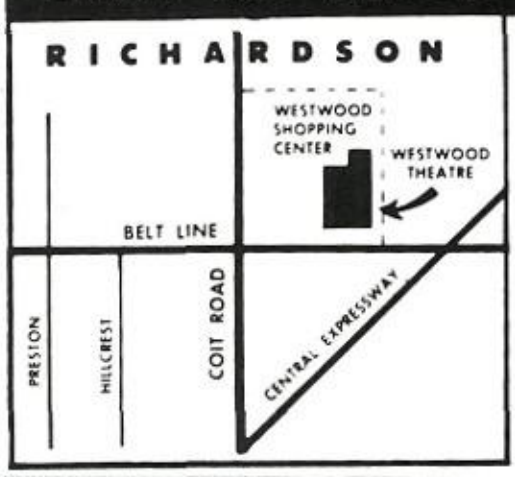
WESTWOOD Theatre

COIT ROAD AT BELT LINE
IN RICHARDSON

Years ahead in concept and design, incomparable in its charm, beauty and comfort, the WESTWOOD in Richardson is the culmination of engineering and architectural sciences. This ultra-modern showcase, located at Coit Road and Belt Line, features a unique "leg-room" seating pattern with generous spacing between rows; the utmost in motion picture brilliancy on a screen specially built for this theatre, providing distortion-free images; full-range, six-channel stereophonic sound; dual projection systems for 70mm and 35mm films; exquisitely furnished lounge areas; automatic temperature and humidity control of constantly-changed filtered air; plentiful free parking. For full enjoyment of the world's finest screen entertainment, visit the WESTWOOD in Richardson.

EASY TO REACH



LUXURIOUS FOAM-PADDED OPERA CHAIRS throughout. So-o relaxing. Plenty of stretch-out room between rows, too.

PERFECT VISION. Every row spaced to provide a clear view of the screen. No need to arise to permit passing.

FINEST PROJECTION on perfectly proportioned mammoth screen . . . with high-fidelity stereophonic sound.

BEAUTIFUL DECOR AND FURNISHINGS from plush carpets to acoustically designed walls and modern furniture.

PURE, CLEAN, FILTERED AIR is provided the year round with no draft, no awareness of any air movement.

SPECIAL SMOKING AREA IN AUDITORIUM

PARKING IS A PLEASURE IN A SURROUNDING SEA OF SPACE!

RHS students Lee Skinner, Bob Van Horn, Julia Byrd, Ken Marx, Barbara Gantt, Ken Bean, and Alice Stone enjoy ushering at the beautiful Westwood.

Debbie...
We finally made it babe! Maybe not the head of the class, but we made it!! I just can't tell you what a living doll that you are.. well I could but I won't because you'll get too bigheaded like so many people we know. You've been such a great friend when I needed one the most.. and a good listener when I needed someone to tell all my troubles. You deserve the best of everything and I know that you'll get it. You're truly a darling and wonderful person and I'll never forget you. I'll miss you something terrible next year. Be good and God bless you always. love Marilyn

Debbie,
you're about the most fabulous all-around person I've ever met. I'm so excited about next year and all the fun we'll have. I know that there must be more cute boys at Tyler than at Pukey Ole R.H.S. Well, I know that we'll have fun, no matter what. It's just in our nature. Good luck and may God bless and keep you.
Yea SRS. '68 Love ya,
Peggy

Debbie,
It's really been great this year, hasn't it?
I wish you the best of luck next year. Let's keep in touch.
You're a lovely girl with a great personality.
God Bless You

Debbie,

We had loads of fun this year. I just wish we could have had a class together this last semester like we had gym 1st.

We have the best sr. class ever. I hope we can see each other after we grad.

Debbie - I don't think I've ever met a girl with such a wonderful personality as yours! You have an enviable talent for making the people you're with feel just great! Your vivaciousness is infectious, two words that very aptly describe you are lovable and darling. And besides that you're beautiful. Thank you for providing me with so many good times and good laughs. I'll never forget you and how good you've made me feel. I feel very lucky to be counted among your friends and I mean every word! I hope you get the best of everything always!

Love always,
Karen

Debbie —
You're such a darlin' girl and I'm so glad I've gotten to know you this year. Stay just as you are & success is certain — Best of luck —

Love,
Jonesy B.

Debbie,
You'll never know how great it has been knowing you this year. I only wish we had met each other sooner. You have the most precious personality and a beautiful smile. I hope you always keep the greatest luck in the world and I know you will. Be Good.
Love ya,
Julie
